

SOCIETY

fair is strictly invitational, and includes the leading members of society and musical circles in the city, who are pleased to have an opportunity to welcome Mr. Brines back to Salt Lake after a year's absence in the east.

Much social interest centers around the spring symphony concert to be given next Sunday, April 3, at the Colonial theatre, when an added attraction will be the appearance of Mrs. Agatha Berkhead as soloist.

Section 2 of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church with Miss Chikoff as chairman, will give an April Fool's day party Friday at the home of Mrs. Fred and Walter Keyworth, 521 East First South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cohn will entertain a number of friends at dinner today to meet Mrs. Fred Simon of San Francisco.

Mrs. Edward Rosenbaum will entertain Tuesday afternoon at bridge tea in honor of out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Harry Joseph entertains informally Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Fred Simon of San Francisco.

The Ladies' Afternoon Bridge club at Fort Douglas will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Willis Ulline at her quarters in officers' row.

Miss Colburne will give a dinner dance Saturday evening at Rowland Hall in honor of the members of the sophomore class. The junior class were given a similar entertainment several weeks ago, and Miss Colburne will entertain for the seniors at a theatre party during the engagement of Miss Adams at the Salt Lake theatre the first week in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Rich will entertain at cards Thursday evening at their home.

Mrs. Rufus A. and Mrs. George Eldredge will entertain the members of the J. T. club and their husbands at cards Thursday evening in their apartments in the Evelyn.

Mrs. W. H. Weyer will entertain the Thursday Luncheon club this week at her home in Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Mathilda Bergman, 518 B street, will entertain Friday evening in honor of her son, to celebrate his twenty-first birthday anniversary, for which occasion invitations have been issued.

One of the social affairs of the week will be a party given by the Misses Mattie McGarry, Ellen and Lillian Foulger at the home of Miss McGarry. About forty invitations have been issued to their young friends.

The O. A. O. club will be entertained tomorrow (Monday) afternoon by Mrs. S. H. Sharran in the Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Ernest Anstee will entertain in compliment Saturday afternoon at an Orpheum party for Miss Ethel M. Lane.

The W. F. Hancock W. R. C. will hold their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Eagles' hall.

The Daughters of Veterans will meet Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall.

The Grace Card club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. T. Breckon.

The Reynolds Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will give a social and card party Tuesday evening, March 29, at the home of Mrs. Emma Yocum, 240 Draeber avenue. All organizations of the G. A. R. are invited to be present.

Among the large social affairs of the coming week is the bridge tea to be given tomorrow, Easter Monday, by Mrs. C. A. Henry of Ogden at the "Virginia," for which over a hundred invitations have been issued. Among the many going from Salt Lake are Mrs. R. A. Grant, the Misses Bess and Catherine Snelgrove, Mrs. Howard N. Snelgrove and Mrs. John Ryan.

Women's Clubs

The next meeting of the Ladies' Literary club will be held in the clubhouse Friday afternoon, April 8. The program to consist of a talk, "Symbolism of Wings in Art," by Mrs. C. H. Blanchard, and a talk on art by J. W. Dawson.

The Current Events and Current Literature sections of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Friday, April 1, Mrs. John Hughes will give the topic of the morning, "Verocchio, da Settignano, da Fiesole."

A well attended meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Adolpha Simon it was decided to reconvene the club under the name of the Ladies' Literary club either under the same name or some other, which will combine the purposes of the important section. Mrs. Simon was elected chairman; Mrs. Allen T. Sanford, assistant chairman, and Mrs. Edward Rosenbaum, secretary. A committee was also appointed to meet before the first meeting to make definite plans toward the organization. The meetings of the section will probably be held on the first Wednesday of the month, at 10 o'clock, at the club house.

The Bayview Reading club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Davis, 107 First avenue. Mrs. Grant Swan will read a paper, "The Arch of the Bridge," and prominent buildings in Athens. "Current Events" will be reviewed by Mrs. P. A. Dix.

The Ladies' Reading club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. L. Davis, when the study of Norwegian Life was completed, with different articles on Norwegian literature read by the members. The next regular meeting will be held on Monday, April 4, with Mrs. T. C. Hurlan in the clubhouse.

At the meeting on Thursday of the Utah committee on school patrons, Miss Rosalie Pollock reported the list of ladies to report upon the standard of school accommodations for each school. The list is as follows:

St. Mary's Notes

In her talk to the students at the last Monday morning assembly Miss Lillie Broyles explained some of the ceremonial features of Holy Week functions. She told of the significance of the blessing and carrying of the palms in procession on Sunday, the history and meaning of the services of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, with more particular reference to the office of Tenebrae.

An appropriate sequence to this subject was the poetical selection recited by Miss M. McDonough; it was a touching and artistic word picture of the Mother of the Savior returning to Jerusalem at the close of that day that brought her sorrows to their climax. Miss McDonough's interpretation was sympathetic and effective.

Preparation for the try-outs of public addresses and declamations, with a view to having the best representative in the approaching state high school contests, quite absorbed all the surplus energies of the classes in these departments during the week. Harold Goff of the University of Utah kindly accepted the office of judge in both these preliminary tests.

Easter Monday being one of the regular holidays in the academic school year, a number of the boarders took advantage of the freedom thus afforded to spend their short Easter vacation at home. All are due to answer roll call, however, promptly at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

An extra privilege granted to the boarding pupils this year was their attendance in a body at the Tenebrae in the cathedral the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Many beautiful floral offerings from friends and patrons of the academy helped to beautify the several altars of the sanctuary for the celebration of the feast of the resurrection, and the fra-

NEPHI.
(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Nephi, March 28.—Mrs. L. W. Schulte and daughter are here from Mexico, the guests of Mrs. Gus Hendrix.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Powkes last Saturday.

Bishop Harrison Sperry of Salt Lake is here visiting his brother Charles Sperry this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blackett of Buena Vista have been visiting here the past week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orson Carier.

Wednesday evening the friends of Mrs. William Jones happened in and gave her a surprise. They all brought their picnic, and a jolly home dancing party was indulged in until a late hour.

One of the nice affairs of the week was the domestic science dinner given at the high school Wednesday at 5 p. m. The host and hostess were Principal and Mrs. R. F. Homer, who gave the affair complimentary to the members of the board of trustees and their wives.

The Misses Ina Hawkins and Stella Cox, assisted by the Misses Leona Hague and Pearl Sparks, had the planning and serving of the whole affair. The table had a pretty centerpiece of violets, and place cards were decorated with violets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stallings of Provo spent Sunday here as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Sperry. Stallings was formerly Miss Nellie Hyde of this place.

Alvin Bowles returned home Monday morning from an extended mission in New Zealand. His friends gave him a jolly surprise party Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. S. Schramm is visiting this week in Salt Lake with her son, Fretted Goding.

Call at our store and we shall be glad to tell you more about this standard eczema cure. Be sure to ask for the right name—D. D. Prescription.
